DRAFT
RUSSIAN FEDERATION
FEDERAL LAW

On the National Horse-Racing Totalisator and Amendments to the Federal Law On State Regulation of the Organisation and Conduct of Gambling and Amendments to Certain Legislative Acts of the Russian Federation

[The source is marked Draft. Its blank effective-date field referring to 2021 is retained. This translation reproduces the draft, not an assertion that it was adopted or is in force.]

Article 1. Subject matter of this Federal Law

This Federal Law establishes the legal basis for state regulation of organisation and conduct of the national horse-racing totalisator in the Russian Federation and imposes restrictions on those activities to protect public morals and citizens' rights and legitimate interests.

Article 2. Key definitions used in this Federal Law

For the purposes of this Federal Law:
1) national horse-racing totalisator (totalisator) means a game in which the outcome of a winnings agreement between two or more participants depends on an event whose occurrence is uncertain;
2) winnings means the portion of the totalisator's monetary pool payable or transferable to a participant when the outcome specified by the national horse-racing totalisator operator's rules occurs;

3) totalisator monetary pool means the aggregate money intended to pay, transfer or provide winnings under the national operator's rules;
4) totalisator receipt means a document issued by a terminal certifying participation rights and confirming a contract between the national operator and participant;
5) electronic totalisator ticket means an electronic document certifying participation rights and confirming that contract, containing protected information on registered stake(s), held in the national processing centre, which identifies the participant who paid the stake(s) under totalisator rules, taking account of Federal Law No. 149-FZ of 27 July 2006, On Information, Information Technologies and Information Protection;

6) national horse-racing totalisator organiser means the federal executive authority duly authorised by the Russian Government to organise the totalisator. It organises it through the national operator by concluding a contract;
7) organisation of the totalisator means measures including selecting the national horse-racing totalisator operator and concluding a contract with it;

8) national operator means a legal entity registered under Russian law, holding by ownership or other lawful title land with racecourses in Russia, established to develop the national horse-breeding industry and preserve and develop Russian racecourses and pedigree stud farms, and contracted by the organiser to conduct the totalisator under this Federal Law;
9) totalisator distributor means a person contracted to distribute (sell, issue) receipts and electronic tickets, accept national totalisator stakes from participants and pay, transfer or provide their winnings;

10) totalisator participant means a person aged 18 or over, entitled to participate under a contract with the national operator;
11) operator remuneration means money not exceeding 30% of amounts received from electronic-ticket sales and acceptance of stakes;
12) earmarked totalisator contributions means money allocated to finance development of the national horse-breeding industry and preservation and development of racecourses and pedigree stud farms in Russia. National totalisator earmarked contributions are 10% of operator remuneration;

13) totalisator stake (interactive stake) means the price of one outcome or one paid combination. Acceptance of stake(s) is confirmed by issuing a ticket, a receipt, and sending the participant a message confirming acceptance and registration of an electronic ticket;
14) annual totalisator report means information the national operator shall publish annually in mass media and/or on the Internet. Its content and publication procedure are determined by the federal executive authority authorised by the Russian Government;
15) totalisator combination means a set of outcomes under the rules;

16) totalisator terminal means a technical device for agreements between participants and issuing receipts, providing information on concluded agreements and event results calculated at the processing centre, and reliable participant information on the total monetary-pool amount;

17) processing centre means hardware and software connected to the Internet and other communications networks to receive and transmit stake information, register stakes and electronic tickets and store and process their information. It shall protect information from loss, theft, distortion, forgery, unauthorised destruction, modification, copying and similar actions and unauthorised Internet access.

Article 3. Objectives and methods of regulating relations in organisation and conduct of the national horse-racing totalisator

1. State regulation by the Russian Federation includes:
1) Government decisions selecting the national operator;
2) Duly issued regulatory legal acts on organisation and conduct;
3) Federal state supervision of conduct;
4) Reporting forms and submission deadlines.

2. Regulation under items 2-4 of part 1 of this Article is exercised by federal executive authorities authorised by the Russian Government.

Article 4. Restrictions on conduct of the national horse-racing totalisator

1. Other gambling may not be conducted under the guise of the national horse-racing totalisator.
2. It may not be conducted using gaming equipment, including gaming machines.
3. Receipts and electronic tickets may not be distributed (sold, issued), stakes accepted from or winnings paid, transferred or provided to persons under 18.

Article 5. Restrictions on transfers and acceptance of payments for Russian legal entities, individual entrepreneurs, foreign citizens and stateless persons engaged in business, foreign legal entities and foreign organisations without legal personality under foreign law, where information indicates organisation and conduct of the national horse-racing totalisator in breach of Russian legislation

1. The credit institution servicing the payer shall refuse transfers of funds, including electronic money and cross-border transfers ordered by an individual, to Russian legal entities, individual entrepreneurs, foreign citizens and stateless persons engaged in business, foreign legal entities and foreign organisations without legal personality under foreign law (hereinafter foreign persons), whose information appears in the list of Russian legal entities, individual entrepreneurs and foreign persons (hereinafter the list of persons) reported to organise and conduct the national horse-racing totalisator in breach of Russian legislation.
For cross-border transfers using payment cards, part 2 applies.
A payment agent may not accept individuals' payments for Russian legal entities, individual entrepreneurs or foreign persons included in that list of persons reported to organise and conduct the totalisator in breach of Russian legislation.
2. The credit institution issuing a payment card shall refuse its customer who is an individual, for a cross-border payment-card transfer to a recipient outside Russia where the order (message) contains a transaction code or identifier assigned in a payment or foreign payment system indicating that the recipient organises and conducts the national horse-racing totalisator, or where recipient information enables the institution to establish that the recipient is included in the list of persons reported to organise and conduct it in breach of Russian legislation.

3. The Russian Government determines procedures for maintaining that list of persons and the list of operators and distributors conducting the national totalisator under this Federal Law.

The Russian Government determines information included in the list of persons reported to conduct the totalisator in breach of Russian legislation and its communication to credit institutions, in agreement with the Central Bank of the Russian Federation. The Government determines communication to payment agents.

Information on persons included in the list of persons reported to organise and conduct the totalisator in breach of Russian legislation shall be published on the Internet official website of the Government-authorised federal executive authority exercising federal state supervision (hereinafter the state supervisory authority), and in official periodicals designated by the Government. Credit institutions and payment agents are deemed notified of inclusion after 5 working days from communication under the second paragraph of this part.

4. The basis for including a Russian legal entity, individual entrepreneur or foreign person in the list of persons reported to organise and conduct the national totalisator in breach of Russian legislation is a state supervisory authority decision.

[Source note: the Russian adjective “информационно-телекоммуникационной” is printed twice consecutively here. The single network description is translated once; no second network is inferred.]

5. Under Government procedures, it makes a reasoned decision to include a Russian legal entity, individual entrepreneur or foreign person in the list of persons reported to organise and conduct the national totalisator in breach of Russian legislation, concerning:
1) persons receiving (having received, or for whom provision has been made to receive) funds, electronic money or cross-border transfers ordered by individuals to pay for participation through domain names and/or website-page locators or network addresses included under Federal Law No. 149-FZ of 27 July 2006, On Information, Information Technologies and Information Protection, in the Unified Register of Domain Names, Internet Website Page Locators and Network Addresses Identifying Websites Containing Information Whose Dissemination in the Russian Federation Is Prohibited. A decision on this ground is taken no later than

5 working days after the supervisory authority receives information on the person(s) receiving, having received or enabled to receive those transfers, including electronic money and cross-border transfers;
2) persons concerning whom it receives information on organisation and conduct without a Government decision authorising conduct and transfers of funds, including electronic money and cross-border transfers, and/or acceptance of payments ordered by individuals to pay for participation. A decision on this ground is taken within 5 working days of receiving that information.
6. The state supervisory authority may take steps to enter into transactions with a Russian legal entity, individual entrepreneur or foreign person engaged in:
1) Organisation and/or conduct without a Government decision or a contract with the national organiser;
2) Distribution (sale, issue) of national totalisator tickets, receipts or electronic tickets or acceptance of stakes without a contract under national totalisator legislation.

7. To identify domain names, website-page locators and network addresses identifying Internet sites used to organise and conduct the national totalisator contrary to this Federal Law, the supervisory authority may take steps to enter into transactions, including a participation contract and receipt of winnings following a national totalisator prize-fund draw, using cash and/or electronic payment instruments.
8. Where location, postal or email address information is available, it informs an included person of its decision within 5 working days of adoption. The decision may be challenged in court.
9. A person included in the list of persons reported to organise and conduct the totalisator in breach of Russian legislation may submit a reasoned written application for removal, including because those unlawful activities have ceased. Its form and submission procedure are determined by the supervisory authority.

10. Within 10 working days from the day following receipt of the part 9 application, the authority considers it and adopts a reasoned decision:
1) Remove the person from the list of persons reported to organise and conduct the totalisator in breach of Russian legislation;
2) Refuse the application.
11. If requests to other public authorities are needed to confirm the presence or absence of grounds for removal, the decision period may be extended by no more than 20 working days.

The authority informs the applicant within 5 working days of the decision; the applicant may challenge it in court.

12. Grounds for removing a Russian legal entity, individual entrepreneur or foreign person from the list of persons reported to organise and conduct the national totalisator in breach of Russian legislation are:

1) A removal decision following a reasoned part 9 application;

2) A court decision that has entered into legal force cancelling the supervisory authority's inclusion decision.

Article 6. Earmarked contributions from the national horse-racing totalisator

1. Earmarked contributions finance development of the national horse-breeding industry and preservation and development of Russian racecourses and pedigree stud farms.
2. The national operator shall transfer them quarterly, in the amount under Article 2 item 12, to non-profit organisations whose list is approved by the Russian Government and whose principal objective is development of Russian horse breeding.
3. Transfers are based on agreements with the national operator.
4. Amounts are paid within 10 days after the quarter ends; quarters are counted from the start of the calendar year.

Article 7. Requirements for electronic national totalisator tickets

An electronic ticket shall state:
1) Operator name and contact telephone;
2) Electronic ticket number;
3) National organiser name;
4) Ticket price or price of one stake (stakes) in the national horse-racing totalisator;

5) Rule extracts sufficient for an adequate understanding of the totalisator, winnings-determination algorithm, winning amount and receipt procedure;
6) Where and when winnings may be received.

Article 8. Totalisator terminal requirements

1. A terminal shall provide:
1) Entry (selection) of combinations;
2) Transmission of stake data to the processing centre for registration and accounting;
3) Receipt of accepted-stake registration data from the centre;
4) A receipt showing the participant's selected combination(s).
2. Terminals shall not contain hidden (undeclared) capabilities, data arrays, components or assemblies unavailable for inspection.
3. They shall protect information from loss, theft, distortion, forgery, unauthorised destruction, modification, copying and similar acts, and unauthorised access to the Internet information and telecommunications network.

4. The Russian Government may impose additional terminal requirements.

Article 9. Locations for electronic-ticket distribution and terminal installation

Electronic tickets may not be distributed and terminals may not be installed:
1) In buildings or structures housing children's, educational or medical organisations;
2) In buildings or structures housing organisations of worship and religious organisations.

Article 10. Organisation and conduct procedure

1. Under a Russian Government decision, the organiser is the federal executive authority responsible for formulation and implementation of state policy and regulatory legal regulation in the agro-industrial complex.
2. The national operator is selected by Government decision.

Article 11. National operator requirements

1. The national operator shall:
1) Hold exclusive rights to totalisator software, including under licence agreements granting use rights;

2) Disclose to the organiser persons capable of significant direct or indirect influence over conduct, and notify changes in founders (members) or head under procedures set by the authorised federal executive authority approved by the Government.
2. A legal entity may not operate if its head, collegial executive-body members or chief accountant have economic-crime convictions, except where convictions are spent or expunged.
3. A legal entity may not operate if its head, founders or members could influence a totalisator in whose conduct obligations to transfer earmarked contributions and/or other payments under the organiser contract were unfulfilled or breached.

Article 12. National totalisator monetary pool

1. The pool is funded by participants' stakes.
2. It is used exclusively to pay, transfer or provide winnings to winning participants.

3. The operator may not encumber the pool with obligations other than winnings obligations to participants, or use it for purposes other than paying, transferring or providing winnings.
4. The pool is not subject to enforcement for the operator's other obligations.

Article 13. Protection of participant rights

1. The operator shall pay, transfer or provide winnings and take other necessary actions for participants contracted with it, or refund accepted stakes in cases under its approved national totalisator rules.
2. A participant may require the operator:
1) To supply information under the rules;
2) To pay, transfer or provide winnings under a contract for totalisator participation.

3. Under Civil Code Article 1063, a participant may sue for delayed payment, transfer or provision of winnings or failure to do so.
4. The operator may not disclose participant information to third parties except under Russian statutory exceptions.
5. Winnings are paid, transferred or provided under national totalisator rules.

6. For contracts evidenced by receipts and winnings under them, where the settlement amount is less than 15,000 rubles and there is doubt whether the participant is 18, the operator or distributor establishes age; identification under Federal Law No. 115-FZ of 7 August 2001, On Combating the Legalisation (Laundering) of Proceeds of Crime and Financing of Terrorism, is not performed. At a settlement amount equal to or greater than 15,000 rubles, the participant shall present a document certifying identity.

For contracts evidenced by electronic tickets and their winnings, at a settlement amount below 15,000 rubles the operator or distributor acts if the participant confirms being 18; identification under Federal Law No. 115-FZ of 7 August 2001, On Combating the Legalisation (Laundering) of Proceeds of Crime and Financing of Terrorism, is not performed. At 15,000 rubles or above, the participant shall be identified using any simplified-identification method under that Law establishing age, or using identity data supplied by a credit institution, federal postal organisation, banking payment agent, communications operator independently entitled to provide mobile radiotelephone services, or certification centre accredited under Federal Law No. 63-FZ of 6 April 2011, On Electronic Signature, entrusted by contract with identification.
7. Monetary winnings unclaimed within the rules' time limit are deposited in a special account for 180 days and then credited to the federal budget.

8. For 3 years the operator shall retain winnings payment, transfer or provision records, winning electronic tickets and information on winning receipts.
9. It shall publish annual activity reports and mandatory annual audit results in mass media and/or on the Internet by 1 June of the following year.
10. Rules and organiser and operator details shall be published in media and/or on the Internet, displayed at terminal locations and available to participants.

Article 14. Audit of the national operator's accounting (financial) statements

The national operator's annual accounting (financial) statements are subject to mandatory audit.

Article 15. Liability for breaches of this Federal Law

Persons responsible for breaches incur criminal, administrative and other liability under the legislation of the Russian Federation.

Article 16. Federal state supervision of national totalisator conduct

1. The state supervisory authority exercises supervision under Government procedures.
2. Federal Law No. 294-FZ of 26 December 2008, On Protection of Rights of Legal Entities and Individual Entrepreneurs in State Control (Supervision) and Municipal Control, applies to supervision and organisation and conduct of legal-entity inspections, subject to features in parts 3-7.
3. Inspections examine a legal entity's compliance during conduct with this Federal Law and other Russian regulatory legal acts on totalisator organisation and conduct (mandatory requirements).
4. A scheduled inspection enters the annual plan once 1 year has elapsed from:
1) Conclusion by a legal entity of a national totalisator conduct contract;

2) Completion of the last scheduled inspection.
6. Unscheduled-inspection grounds are:
1) Expiry of the compliance deadline in the supervisory authority's order to remedy identified violations;
2) Receipt of citizens' applications and submissions, including those of individual entrepreneurs and legal entities, and information from state or local authorities or media on violations;
3) A head or deputy head's unscheduled-inspection decision pursuant to instructions of the Russian President or Government.
7. An unscheduled on-site inspection on part 6 item 2 grounds may take place immediately with notification to the prosecutor's office under Article 10(12) of Federal Law No. 294-FZ of 26 December 2008, On Protection of Rights of Legal Entities and Individual Entrepreneurs in State Control (Supervision) and Municipal Control.
8. Advance notification of the inspected legal entity on those grounds is prohibited.
9. Supervisory officials, under procedures
